DISMISSAL ORDER

By Order dated October 30, 2015, the Court directed the Clerk of the Court to accept no further actions or filings by plaintiff without an Order from the Chief Judge of the United States Court of Federal Claims (see Case No. 15-586C, docket entry no. 14). The Court's Order states, in relevant part, that "[i]n seeking leave to file any actions in this [C]ourt in the future, Mr. Judd must explain how his complaint raises new matters properly before this [C]ourt. See RCFC 11(b) (barring the filing of unwarranted or frivolous claims)." On July 11, 2016, plaintiff filed the above-captioned matter without seeking leave of the Court to file this action. And so, the Court DISMISSES plaintiff's complaint pursuant to Rule 41(b) of the Rules of the United States Court of Federal Claims ("RCFC"). In addition, the Court DENIES as moot plaintiff's motion for class certification pursuant to RCFC 23.

The Clerk's Office is directed to DISMISS the complaint and to refund plaintiff's filing fee. No costs.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
